

Community Forum

Opposing unwanted development sharing successful strategies

Organised by Queensland Greens - West Brisbane Branch Hosted by UQ Greens

The purpose of this free forum is to bring together individuals and community groups who are currently opposing or have successfully opposed inappropriate development proposals. Larissa Waters will explain the legal ramifications of different types of development application, and there will be the opportunity to share experiences.

Speakers include:

- Larissa Waters (Environmental Lawyer and Queensland Greens Lead Senate Candidate for 2010 Federal Election)
- Barry O'Sullivan (Taringa Neighbourhood Group)

Venue: Conference Room, Social Sciences and Humanities Library (Duhig Building 2), University of Queensland

Date: Saturday, 24 April 2010

Time: 2.30 - 4.30 pm (followed by afternoon tea)

All welcome!

For more information, contact Fiona Semple (f_semple@yahoo.com).

The SS&H Library is located near the Merlo coffee shop in the northeast corner of the Great Court (<http://www.library.uq.edu.au/maps/ssah.html>). There is plentiful free parking on campus on weekends. There are bus routes to two sides of campus, as well as City Cat access from the city.