Happy New Year

The rush of Christmas and the New Year is over and it's a perfect opportunity to fulfill that New Year's resolution of eating better! Of course the markets are a great place to start. You can't get much closer to the source than at the Moggill Markets. The markets provide the perfect opportunity to talk with the producer, find out what's in season and the best way to prepare your purchases.

The markets also highlight how interconnected rural producers and urban consumers are and with 2012 being the Year of the Farmer we have a great opportunity to get to know our own farmers better. This national initiative is a great way to showcase the importance of farmers to all of us. If you are interested in more information about the Year of the Farmer visit:

It's our Birthday

It's our birthday on Saturday 21 January. As the market goes from strength to strength we certainly have plenty to celebrate. There will be prizes and entertainment as well as all of our regular stallholders. School goes back the Monday after the market so it's a great opportunity to stock up on back to school lunch box supplies.

Join us for the celebrations

EFTPOS facilities are available at the market office.

delicious. Awards

The delicious. Produce Awards are in their third year and are becoming recognized as one of the premier awards for Australian producers both of primary products and artisan produce. The awards also recognize outstanding farmers markets. We think that we have a pretty fantastic market and would love for our producers and customers to be recognized.

We need your help to win. You can cast your vote for Moggill Markets @ Brookfield by going to:
